Let Her Go Gallagher

We don't know exactly who Gallagher is, neither do we know why he don't let her go. But we do know that the Boss has gone to the world's fair and is now meandering up and down the Pike, riding the Seenic Railway, or maybe eating dog with the Igorrotes.

Now, if you want a New Henney Buggy with 38 inch springs, 115 screws in the bed, 15 springs in the seat and 14 coats of paint on the body, we propose to let her go. We are bound to have business this week if we bust the whole shootin' match, and will sell you the best Road Wagon in this neck of the woods at prices hitherto unknown. Our Surrey, and we have only one left, is a peach, and the price is right. We are going to sell it. Come right along, buy this surrey, present it to the partner of your joys and it will bring to mind the days when you sang "Comin' thro' the Rye." And this reminds us that we still have a few sacks of Swift's Fertilizer left, the best on earth, which will not only make the rye hump itself, but will make your wheat and timothy spring up as if by magic and produce a great crop. And the Mandt wagon that has two more spokes in each wheel than any other and is the best ironed wagon made, with maple, hickory or steel axels, needs no introduction to the public as the number we have sold speak their own praises. We love it for the friends it has made. And while the Boss is in St. Louis coming down the Pike and Shooting the Chutes we are coming down the line shooting the bottom out of the prices on American Fence and Galvanized ware. You can fence your farm with American Fence cheaper today than at any time since the flood. Galvanized tubs and buckets go at prices you never heard of before.

The best way to prevent an accident to your flowers by keeping Jack Frost away is to get one of our Bridge & Beach Hot blast Heating Stoves that keeps a more even heat, burns less fuel, and keeps fire longer than any other stove made. The Bridge & Beach Cook Stoves and Ranges can't be beat. Come in and see our lines.

In anticipation of a big corn crop we have bought a large and complete line of Husking Gloves, Pegs, Hooks, Corn Knives, and in fact everything necessary to harvest a crop of corn. In short, our stock of Hardware, Tinware, Vehicles and Drugs is the most complete that was ever brought to town. Come in and see us and we will price our goods before you buy.

THIRTY FEET OF MINERAL.

ANOTHER ORE STRIKE SOUTH-WEST OF TOWN.

On The Sloan-Aylor Farm In The Vicinity of the Ping Pong Mine.

Within the past few days, according to the Carthage Press, a drill hole being put down on the 580 acre tract four miles south-west of Jasper owned equally by R. M. Sloan and J. W. Aylor has penetrated 30 feet of zinc ore as rich as the Carthage-Joplin district has ever produced. The mineral was first found at the 10 foot level and now at a depth of 170 feet the drill continues in the ore.

Mr. Sloan was notified that mineral had been struck and he went to the land. He took some of the drillings to Carthage which show the mineral to be of extraordinary richness. The dirt seems to be 35 per cent. mineral and the ore looks like 60 per cent stuff. The owners will continue the drilling for a time but will soon begin the sinking of a shaft.

For the past several months drilling has been going on at this land. A number of holes were put down and good prospects located. The present hole is the richest of all and is located within 200 yards of the center of the tract. The strike shows the land to be undoubtedly rich, and the prospects for one of the biggest mining camps in the district are flattering. It is likely that the tract will be surveyed at once and lots leased to companies.

This land is just across the road from the Jasper Rice farm where the Lowe, Gade and Polson company of this city has taken out considerable mineral and where this company have a big mining plant.

They Heard Walbridge.

Quite a number of republicans heard the republican candidate for governor Cyrus P. Walbridge at Carthage yesterday. Among them being Judge Hubbard, Geo. Andrews, G. W. Tillman, Mr. and Mrs. John Fairfield, Messrs Fairfield and Tillman represented Jasper on the republican committee.

Mrs. J. W. Smith and Mrs. Smith of the Preston neighborhood expect to leave Sunday evening for St. Louis to spend a week at the fair.

DIDN'T KNOW HIS STANDING.

Chief of the "Umums" Arrested in Carthage.

John Coffain, who is better known here as the "High Muck-a-Muck of the Ancient Order of Umums," and who has made Jasper his headquarters for the past couple of years, was arrested in Carthage Friday for a plain drunk, the officers evidently not knowing of his high standing in lodge circles.

In police court Mr. Coffain frankly admitted that he had taken several drinks of Scotch whiskey, but asserted that he was not drunk. He also denied the legality of his arrest on the grounds that he saw no badges on the two men who escorted him to the jail, though it was known to the court that each wore a badge as large as a breakfast plate. His statement further developed the fact that part of his business in the city was to initiate J. D. Harris, city attorney, as an Umum, but Mr. Harris at the time of the arrest had failed to note the required initiation fee which in this instance was to be a pint of imported Scotch whiskey.

Coffain is a Swede whose mental attitudes are at all times of the character indicated in court. He is a harmless creature who is continually talking about the "Order of the Umums," which he seems to think is a good organization but the character of which he never divulges.

WILL LOCATE HERE

Mr. Wilkins Will Move From One Jasper Co. To Another.

J. F. Wilkins, who came down from Jasper County, Iowa, last week to visit his sister Mrs. Geo. Straub northeast of town has decided to locate in Jasper county, Mo., and has bought the S. P. King 130 acre farm, formerly known as the Kuseum place southeast of Jasper. The consideration was $7,440. Mr. Wilkins has been traveling around considerably in the last few weeks looking for a location, having spent six days around Ottawa, Kansas, but it did not take long for him to discover that Jasper county was the best. He will take possession June 1.

Mr. King expects to move to Colorado where they go on account of Mrs. King's health.

Mrs. Ware who has been visiting her brother H. Hendricks left Tuesday for Blackwell, Okla., where she will spend the winter with her sister.

All New and Up-to-date Millinery at Miss Frick's.

Skaggs & Baker will have a carload of Northern Potatoes the 19th or 20th, at 65c.

THE FARM SOLD TWICE

PECULIAR CIRCUMSTANCES OF A LAND SALE.

Two Different Parties Thought they Had Purchased the Brown Farm West of Town.

The sale of the Brown farm near the Lyndland school house, which was reported in last week's News has resulted in somewhat of a tangle. As a consequence there are two different purchasers who supposed that they had come in possession of the farm.

The farm was sold to J. A. Cozatt of this city through R. R. Larriek, who acted as agent for the heirs. The farm has also been in the hands of A. F. Lewis as a sub agent for an Iowa real estate firm.

W. H. Cather, who lives on the place and Wm. Lukens negotiated with Mr. Lewis for the purchase of the place and had paid $1000 down on it to hold the bargain, and they hold Lewis' receipt for the same. This contract was made after telegraphing to the agent in Iowa and receiving the information that the land was still in the market. It appears however, that at this time the sale to Mr. Cozatt had already been made and the heirs had signed the deed. The trouble seems to have been caused by the owners not notifying their agent that the land had been sold. It is not known as yet just how the matter will be settled.

This Is Jasper Week.

This is evidently Jasper week at the World's fair if the size of the crowd has anything to do with it. Among the Jasper contingent which left for St. Louis Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Lauderbaugh, Mrs. Nannie Montgomery, Misses Nora Fox, Clara Bayne, Nettie Schocker, Bertha and Ernie Roberts, Lillie Rhoades, Messrs G. W. R. X. H. F. Fox, Roy Boucher, Roy Harris, Homer Lay, Aden Kerney and Carson Baker.

Election Day Dinner.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church are planning to serve dinner on election day, Nov. 8. The place will be announced later.

ALLISON-SWEET WEDDING

Popular Jasper Young Lady Married Tuesday Night.

Miss Alma Sweet a popular Jasper young lady was married last Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock to Mr. W. N. Allison, of Pennsboro, Dade County. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. Ed Ballard on Maiden Lane and was performed by Rev. Palmer of Sarcoux. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present.

After the ceremony and the usual congratulations light refreshments were served.

The happy couple left on the 8 o'clock train for St. Louis where they will spend their honeymoon enjoying the World's fair. After their return they will make their home at Pennsboro, where the groom has a fine farm.

The bride is an accomplished young lady and is well and popularly known in this vicinity where she has lived all her life. She is a graduate of the Jasper High School and has been an efficient teacher in the schools of the county for a number of years. Mr. Allison is a prominent farmer of Dade County and is a brother of S. W. Allison, the mail carrier on Route 6 from Carthage. Mr. and Mrs. Allison have the best wishes of their many Jasper friends.

IT WAS FIRST-CLASS.

Rudisill Concert Co. Pleases a Jasper Audience.

The presentation of "Ben Hur" by Rudisill Concert Company at the Opera house last Monday night was first-class in every particular. This seems to be the general verdict of the goodly sized audience in attendance.

The story of Ben Hur was given admirably by Mr. Rudisill and was illustrated with magnificent stereopticon pictures.

The program was interspersed by excellent music by the Monroe sisters, Miss Gertrude on the violin and Miss Beatrice contralto. Both proved themselves artists of a high order and were repeatedly encoered.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hardaway returned Sunday morning from the World's fair. Among the souvenirs which Tom brought back was a ball on the side of his back.
